SOULWORK WEEK TWO

Five Limiting Beliefs

Someone else will do it. Something will make it for me. Someone else give it to me. Someone else's responsibility...parents/children/spouse/lottery/God etc..

I'm "bad" with money. I would never know what to do with money. I don't know anything about finances/I am bad at math.

I'm not spiritual if I have money. You're supposed to be poor to be spiritual. Past life/rich people are "bad" – poor people are victims of the rich people.

I'm not good enough to have money. I don't have talent/gifts/skills. I deserve to be poor/our family is "poor" – ie: I am comfortable being a victim.

There's not enough for everyone, there's a limited amount of money, not everyone can have what they want. "If he is successful, then it takes money out of my pocket."

INTRO TO DESERVABILITY

“Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us. We ask ourselves; who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, and fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small does not serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people will not feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine, as children do. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It is not just in some of us; it is in everyone and as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give others permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.” - MW
